Meet our Candidates for Board of Directors

John Campbell, former Board President

We have 4 candidates responding to the call for new board members. Thanks go to:

Lisa Feheley

I moved back to Denver last Summer and immediately re-joined the DBTC. My rides with the club on the bike paths around town have been energizing and I have loved meeting other members. Joining up for lunch after a ride with fellow cyclists makes for a perfect day!

I am interested in being a board member to give back to the club that has been a blessing to me. I'm inspired by the upcoming 50 year Anniversary of our club and I hope to help the board and the club in any way I can.

Ellen Fitzpatrick

I have been a DBTC member since 2006. I went on my first out of town trip to the Texas Hill Country that year and have been on several other trips to date. I've especially enjoyed meeting wonderful DBTC members and having the many friendships I've kept over the years. I have volunteered at some of the picnics and volunteer recognition dinners, and as rear leader on several rides and even co-led an out of town trip.

I would like to step up and serve as a Board member to help retain the Club's outstanding leadership in the bicycling community and to lend my skills and time as needed to an organization I enjoy.

Cyndy Klepinger

I recently joined DBTC as a way to meet people as well as improve my cycling skills. I enjoy cycling and enjoy it even more in the company of fellow riders. One of the best things about DBTC is the fun rides and tours that are offered. I would like to use my 30-plus years of non-profit marketing to help the club promote itself and to increase its membership and programming.

Brad West

My family moved to Denver in 1995 from Hays, Kansas, and I took up cycling to stay fit for ski season. Now it's my only sport; I go for endurance—40 to 60 mi. in an outing.

I rode with DBTC for three years when I began cycling. Since then I have ridden with many of the Denver clubs. I ride the MS 150 and the Copper Triangle every year. In 2011 I took a week off in August to follow the Pro Cycling Challenge. I did the same in 2012 and 2013 and am making plans for 2014.

It will be fun meeting everyone again for the first time.

Ski Week in Taos, NM

Feb. 1-9, 2014

TAOS SKI VALLEY

Taos Ski Valley is a small but interesting (and challenging) ski hill known for its Ski Weeks. The ski school is famous for its week long clinics: for about $120 you get 6 days of 2-hour lessons with the same instructor who works with you, video-tapes you, and critiques your skiing to improve your on-mountain skills. This is a great opportunity for double black diamond cliff jumpers (yes there are cliffs to jump) or never-ever green run skiers who want to try a new sport. There is something for everybody who wants to learn how to be better on the snow. And, as those of you who have been in Taos for bicycle rides know, it is a very beautiful part of the world. Art galleries and restaurants abound in town; or take a balloon ride over the Rio Grande gorge... you don't have to be a skier to join in the fun. Everything's possible!

This is an unofficial excursion: you are responsible for your own lift tickets (separate from ski school clinic) and other incidentals. If a few people are interested in skiing Taos without the crowds and lift lines of the front range, I'd love to put together a trip, if only to have carpooling companions. If 6 or fewer people are interested, it's probably the motel near the plaza. If 8-10 people are interested, we could probably rent a house and do some in-home cooking as well as enjoy the local eateries. If a dozen or more really want to go, we could probably get slope-side condos. I'm going, and would like company.

This is a non-profit trip. I'm paying my own way and will go regardless of traveling companions. If interested contact me: Sandra Newton: 303-747-3751

Blossoms of Light at DBG

Sandra Newton

DENVER BOTANIC GARDENS

Denver Botanic Garden Blossoms of Light - Tuesday, Dec. 10. Meet Sandra Newton at 5pm for pretty good snacks and drinks at Udi's Pizza Cafe Bar before hiking at 6pm to the York Street Botanic Garden's Blossoms of Light celebration. Driving is an option, of course. The lights are spectacular, as are the ice sculptures, and for a dollar you can purchase 3D glasses to have a different perspective on the illuminations. It's always more fun to do this in a group, so come along for a lovely night with lots and lots (did they say millions?) of lights. Details: Udi's is at 2550 E. Colfax; tickets at the Gardens are $10 or I can get them early for $8. Let me know if you want to go. And if you want me to buy discounted tickets, please get me your payment by Dec 2. You can reach me at 303-747-3751 or email at sn@rhl.com. Snow does not cancel.

DBTC FALL-WINTER FUN RIDES 2013

Fall is officially here. Our ride coordinators are taking a much-deserved break. Late fall and winter riding conditions make it difficult to pre-plan rides. If it is cold and blowing, the ride leader may not want to roll out to lead a promised ride - especially since he or she might be the only person to brave the elements. Therefore, our scheduled rides become Show-N-Go with a few holiday or special events.

Pace of Ride	Difficulty of Terrain	Mileage	Quadrant of City	Departure Time
Roses – Leisurely Fun – Comfortable Int. – Brisk Road – Fast ATB – Unpaved Roads MTB – Mountain Bikes	H1 – Flat H2 – Some Hills H3 – Hilly H4 – Serious climbs Two ratings: technical skill T1 to T4 and Physical exertion P1 to P4	This is an estimate – options may be offered	NW NE SE SW W	Arrive early enough to unload your bike and be ready to leave at the time shown.

If you'd like to include an activity in the newsletter, please email it to ridecoordinator@dbtc.org by December 20th for the January/February newsletter or contact Patty at 303-989-8268.

Ride Locator: There is a guide to the most frequent start locations on our website – www.dbtc.org. It provides the information you need to use Map Quest or Google Maps to make a map to the starting location.

DBTC's E-Mailing Lists

Get late breaking news, last minute ride updates, and short-notice of weekday rides, all e-mailed directly to you as soon as the information is posted. If the weather is "iffy", a ride leader can post a notice to let you know if the ride will go or be cancelled.

DBTC Meetup group,

www.meetup.com/Denver-Bicycle-Touring-Club/ can be used to post rides as well. Once you have posted your ride, we will review the information to be sure it complies with the club requirements then upload it to the MeetUp web site where you can edit your ride info. MeetUp is open to the public and can increase the number of riders on your rides and, hopefully, club members. Rides cannot conflict with the ride schedule. If you have registered with MeetUp, we will post your scheduled rides. We are also on Facebook if you want to share pictures or bike-related news.

You can join all four groups. After you send the e-mail requesting to join, you will be contacted via e-mail with a confirmation. If you'd like to post an event, simply go into the site. Remember that only club-related activities can be posted. We reserve the right to cancel any posting we don't think is appropriate.

Please Note;

- Joining either of these Yahoo Groups, Facebook or the MeetUp Group does not make you a valid member of the DBTC.
- If your e-mail address changes, you must send your new e-mail address to both the Yahoo Group and to the DBTC webmaster (webmaster@dbtc.org)
- The DBTC Website operates independently from the Yahoo Groups. The Yahoo Groups send only e-mail messages concerning some upcoming events. The DBTC monthly Newsletter, The Colorado Bicyclist, is sent to you from the DBTC Website via e-mail only if you have so requested.

Guidelines for Posting a Last-Minute Ride

Dale Trone

The purpose of the schedule is to allow us to provide a variety of rides throughout the metro area. Depending on last-minute rides does not meet that goal; however, there are times when no ride is scheduled within a reasonable driving distance so you might want to add an alternative.

The guidelines for posting last minute rides are:

1. The leader must be a member
2. There can't be a similar ride on the published schedule
 - a. Geography – a ride in Parker is NOT similar to one in Golden
 - b. AND start time – a 9 AM ride is NOT similar to a 3 PM ride
 - c. AND speed type – ROAD and FUN rides are NOT similar
- d. AND distance – a 35 mile ride is NOT similar to a 20 mile ride
3. When a last-minute ride appears to fall into the gray area such as 20 vs 25 miles, FUN rides starting an hour apart with start locations both in Aurora, then contact the scheduled ride leader to see if s/he feels the ride would compete. It might be better to simply join the other ride.
4. While yahoo groups are still a media for last-minute rides, MeetUp has additional features and more and more of our last minutes are published there.
5. Yahoo and MeetUp can be used when last-minute changes are necessary. This allows a little more flexibility if you schedule a ride and then have to make a change later.

Many of our members love winter sports and want to continue enjoying the outdoors with their DBTC friends. The DBTC Message Board will be our main means of communication through the winter months. If you'd like to post an event, simply go into the site. Remember not all members have email so if you have it in the newsletter all members are notified.

WINTER SHOW-N-GO AND HOLIDAY RIDES

FUN/INT-2/3-20/30-NESW-11:00 AM Unless there is a leader named, WINTER rides will be Show-N-Go. The riders who show up on these days will decide among themselves the route, the mileage, the pace and the after-ride restaurant. The starting locations will be places where many rides have begun in the past and thus several riders will have an idea of possible routes to be taken. You can go to www.dbtc.org and hit the start locations button for more detailed directions to most of the starting points or possibly maps of rides from that location.

Winter Riding Guidelines

- Weather: Forecast temperature above freezing with dry conditions.
Clothing: Wear layers, outer windbreaker, hat/ear covers, gloves, toe covers & riding/sports pants covering the knees
Other: Bring water, repair items and a snack
